

Meeting Speaker

Rosemary J. LoGiudice, DVM, CCRT

Director and Visiting Clinical Assistant Professor

Furnetic, The Chicago Center for
Veterinary Medicine
University of IL College of Veterinary Medicine

Upon graduation from the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine in 1981, Dr. Rosemary LoGiudice practiced for 20 years in the Joliet area (starting out and staying with Dr. Cecil Ingmire until his retirement), caring for horses, farm animals and llamas/alpacas, as well as cats and dogs. From there, she continued her career providing the American Veterinary Medical Association with her unique brand of leadership and guidance for nearly eight years.

The opportunity to play a role in the development and operations of Furnetic and the Chicago Center for Veterinary Medicine (a facility of the U of IL College of Veterinary Medicine) lured her back to clinical practice. It also provided the perfect opportunity to continue her education, becoming a certified canine rehabilitation therapist in 2009 (through the Canine Rehabilitation Institute) and beginning training in Acupuncture (through the Chi Institute of Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine).

A past-president of the Kankakee Valley VMA and the ISVMA, Dr. LoGiudice is excited to be able to bring her colleagues in the KVVMA information about the "Sense and Cents of Canine Rehabilitation in Your Practice."
